

ICCX Southern Europe – The Precast Sector at SaMoTer

ICCX Southern Europe will be the new meeting point for the concrete and precast industry in Southern Europe. Organized from March 21-25 2020 as part of the SaMoTer trade fair in Verona, Italy, it will be offering a dedicated selection of 100+ exhibitors especially for the concrete and precast concrete industry. An ICCX Industry Concept Conference Program will offer the opportunity to see up-to-date information from industry suppliers around the world. SaMoTer is organized since more than 50 years in Verona as the most established construction show in the greater region. From 2020, thanks to the ICCX Southern Europe addition, the SaMoTer portfolio of equipment suppliers will attract every three years also the precast industry. At the last edition at SaMoTer, more than 50.000 visitors attended the trade fair.
